

Mark your calendars, as PBJC hosts a Family Havdalah not to be missed!
Join us as we explore our faith & connection to animals through a spiritual lens.

Adventures in “Ark” – eology
Saturday, November 15TH from 5pm – 7pm

Featuring

Crafts, songs and stories for children of all ages
Noah’s Ark exhibit from our Kitah-Hey Religious School Group
Inspiring stories presented by PBJC Religious School Students

A light Shabbat “3rd” meal (Seuda Sh’Lisheet) will be served
Bring a picture of your favorite animal for blessings led by Rabbi Finkel
Havdalah and Ma’ariv service

Please tear below and return to Arlene Lopez in the PBJC Office, 973.244.9800
Or

E-mail at RSVPKESHER@AOL.COM, please include name and number of people attending
Please respond no later than November 3rd

For further information contact Gail Shube at 973-402-7256

This program is proudly brought to you by the Keshet Committee
“Connecting Families to Innovative Jewish Experiences”

This event is free of charge with special thanks to Ilene and Richard Kurland for their generous donation

Adventures in “Ark” – eology RSVP

_____ Yes, the _____ family will attend with _____ people.